Important Notices

Duty of Disclosure

Before entering into a contract of general insurance, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth), to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know or could reasonably be expected to know, that is relevant to the Insurer's decision about insuring you and if so, on what terms.

Your duty does not require disclosures of matters:

- That diminish the risk;
- That are of common knowledge;
- That the Insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of its business as an insurer, ought to know;
- As to which compliance with your duty of disclosure is waived by the Insurer.
- You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the Insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Non-disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the policy in respect of a claim or may cancel the policy. If your no-disclosure is fraudulent the Insurer may avoid the policy from its inception. This is why it is vital that enquiry must be made of all relevant principals, directors, employees, contractors, and subsidiaries before this Proposal is signed by or on behalf of the prospective Insured.

Utmost good faith

Every insurance contract is subject to the doctrine of utmost good faith, which requires that parties to the contract should act toward each other with the utmost food faith. Failure to do so on your part may prejudice any claim of the continuation of cover provided to the insurer.

Change of circumstance

It is vital that you advise us of any departure from your "normal" form of business (i.e. the business details that have been advised to your Insurer). For example, any change to business activities, ownership, acquisitions, changes in location, or new overseas activities.

Subrogation

You may prejudice your rights with regard to a claims if, without prior agreement from the Insurer, you make an agreement with a third party that will prevent the Insurer from recovering the loss from that party of another party.

Under insurance

Your property is insured for reinstatement and replacement costs and as such the Insured amounts should represent the full replacement value at new costs. If this is not done any claim you make for these costs may not be paid in full.
