We do more than provide protection for your organisation

True risk management expertise can be rare to find. At Arthur J. Gallagher, we focus on delivering tailored risk management solutions to meet the needs of your business.

Arthur J. Gallagher
BUSINESS WITHOUT BARRIERS™

We help you define it

We work in conjunction with ACTCOSS to ensure we have a detailed understanding of your risk exposures. Our advice is based on practical, proven knowledge of the needs and challenges facing community service organisations in Australia.

Simply having insurance isn't enough to protect your business. Our people can provide the technical expertise to deliver you the right risk management program, along with the insurance solutions, to protect what you've built.

And service it

With the global strength of Arthur J. Gallagher behind us, we negotiate with insurers to find the right insurance solution for your business. When we need them, we have direct access to our global network of experts.

We bring the same global strength to support you in the case of a claim.

To deliver the right solution

We have developed an industry specific solution with reduced premiums for ACTCOSS members. Among other things, this includes association liability, management liability and professional indemnity. It can also include cover for all physical assets including motor vehicles.
